AN EMPIRIC'S VICTIM

Mrs. Mary George, of Oakdale, Lying at the Point of Death.

MRS. PAULINE DELPONT IN JAIL.

Held to Await the Fesult of Her Patient's Injuries.

A JUSTICE CALLS IN A PHYSICIAN

Mrs. Mary George, the wife of a prom inent oil producer of Oakdale, is at the point of death, and Mrs. Pauline Delpont, of the same place, has been arrested and placed in the county jail, charged with a serious

On Friday, July 15, Mrs. George was attacted with severe cramps, and in the absence of the village physician, Mrs. Delpont, who is a midwife, was called in. Mrs. George explained to the woman her condition. The latter insisted that an operation would be necessary to obtain relief. After much persuasion Mrs. George consented to the operation and on the night of the 15th it was performed. Instead of the lady getting better she gradually grew worse. She demanded the services of a physician, but Mrs. Delpont assured her there was nothing serious and that a physician was not needed.

The Anthorities Make an Investigation, Yesterday the condition of Mrs. George leaked out and the matter was at once placed in the hands of the borough authorities, who began an investigation.

'Squire Robb, the Justice of the Peace of Oakdale, visited the residence of Mrs. George, and after repeated knocks at the door was admitted. He was met by Mrs. Delpont, who informed him that Mrs. George was not seriously ill, but that she was not prepared to receive any visitors. The 'Squire was not sat-isfied with this explanation and proceeded at once to the sick room. There he found Mrs. George lying on the bed suffering the most excruciating pain. He called in Dr. Reissing, who upon examination found the woman in a state of amination found the woman in a state of collapse. A further examination showed that her condition was the result of malpractice. When questioned closely by the Doctor Mrs. George admitted that an operation had been performed on her and that it was done by Mrs. Delpont. She said that it was performed on the night of July 15 and that since that time she had received no medical attention.

Mrs. Delpont Piaced Under Arrest. 'Squire Robb went at once to his office and issued a warrant for Mrs. Delpont's ar-rest, and served it himself. The woman was given a preliminary hearing which resulted in her being committed to jail without bail toawait the result of Mrs. George's in-

Dr. Reissing testified at the hearing that he has no hopes of Mrs. George's recovery. Mrs. Delpont, the accused, has lived in the neighborhood of Oakdale for many years where she has been engaged as a mid-wife. It is also said that she does a thriving business in fortune telling and that she is held in great fear by many superstitious people who live in the vicinity.

For the third time within two years the queensware and china store of T. G. Evans & Co., at Third avenue and Market street, was partially destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The loss is about $50,000 and is nearly all covered by insurance. The damage to the building is about $2,000 and fully insured. It is owned by the Denny estate. The fire started at 11:30 yesterday morning. It is supposed some employe carelessly threw a lighted match into a pile of straw

The heat was so intense that the men had to work in relays to avoid being prostrated. The five-story building in the rear looked as if it would go, but it was finally saved. The bottling house of J. Henry Younker, Jr., a driver for a liveryman on Second avenue, was arrested yes-terday and lodged in jail on a charge of aggravated assault and battery. He is accused of choking and beating his sister, Kate Younker, and breaking two of her ribs. Behind the case is a story of domestic infelicity of an unusual nature, in which is concerned a sewing machine with a fatal history. Some weeks ago Henry Younker, Sr., the father of the couple, a resident of the Ninth ward, was arrested on a charge made against him by Agent O'Brien, of the Humane Society

ing his family, and among other things, taking the attachments of his daughter's sewing machine and selling them to get drunk. He had been arrested once and a warrant was out for him on another charge, when he became desperate. A favorable opportunity occurred and he ended his troubles by throwing himself in front of a train, the wheels grinding him to pieces.

With his death the family troubles did not end. The daughter possessing the sewing machine, a young woman of 20 years, recovered the attachments sold by her father. She then left, taking the machine with her, to work somewhere. Her brother objected to the removal of the machine and objected to the removal of the machine and a quarrel followed. It concluded by him, it is alleged, choking her and beating her with a club, breaking two of her ribs and other-wise severely injuring her. She made the information against him before Alderman Donovan and in default of $1,000 bail he was committed to jail for a hearing next Wednesday.

THE ICE MAN'S HARVEST.

It Is Not, as May Be Supposed, in Very Ho Weather.

A prominent ice dealer of the city said: 'It is commonly supposed that when the weather is extremely hot, as it has been for some days past, that it is then the ice men are coining their money. This is entirely wrong. The ice man dreads extremely hot weather both in summer and winter. This may seem peculiar, but when I tell you that may seem peculiar, but when I tell you that of the 8,000 pounds of ice I sent out on my wagons this morning, there are just 3,000 pounds for which there is no accounting, you can appreciate the force of my remarks. No, we are perfectly satisfied with moderates the second of the sec ate weather in summer, for then there is not so much waste."

From the Rev. R. W. Grange, Pittsburg, Pa.:

'I take pleasure in saying a word or two in cordial recommendation of Trinity Hail. As one of its patrons for the past three years. I have been deeply interested, of course. I have seen the school life and have looked into the course of study and the methods of teaching. All these are very satisfactory. I have seen too, that the care is kindly, the food excellent, and the discipline administered with rare good sense and judgment. Trinity Hall, to my mind, is the most 'home-like' of any school I ever saw.'
